

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE EXPERTS, INC IS A MEMBER OF THE AFCEA INTERNATIONAL CYBER COMMITTEE

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL (September 9, 2011) – AFCEA International has selected Bill Lawless of The Experts to serve on their Cyber Committee, in one of the Committee spots reserved for Young AFCEAN's. The Committee also includes members from Industry, which makes for a robust dialogue among senior representatives from the public and private sectors, working together on solutions for the Nation's Cyber issues, forging a shared goal of global Cyber Security. AFCEA established this prestigious Committee in response to requests from Government, citing the value of such an independent forum in addressing the critical-and ever-increasing-challenges they are facing in Cyber. The Committee strives to coordinate AFCEA's outreach to the Cyber Community, including identifying and developing programs and initiatives in the Cyber arena.

AFCEA International is the association serving the military, government, industry, and academia as an ethical forum for advancing professional knowledge and relationships in the fields of communications, IT, intelligence, and global security.

"Bill Lawless' dedication and commitment to the Cyber Community has been paramount," stated Mark Zanki, Chief Strategy Officer for The Experts. "This is a great honor for Bill Lawless and The Experts."
