THE EXPERTS, INC. IS A TEAMING PARTNER WITH SAIC TO SUPPORT US CENTCOM

TAMPA, FL (October 31, 2008) – The Experts, Inc. announced today it has been awarded the Cable Plant Management and Support of USCENTCOM J6 as a teaming partner to SAIC. The USCENTCOM award is to support the IT services within J6 and surrounding the C4I. The US Central Command (USCENTCOM) located at MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa, Florida, is the unified command responsible for US security interests in 27 nations that stretch from the Horn of Africa through the Arabian Gulf region, into Central Asia. USCENTCOM is one of nine unified commands in the Department of Defense. The command was activated in January 1983 as the successor to the Rapid Deployment Joint Task Force. USCENTCOM also maintains a significant forward presence in the AOR consisting of combat forces from all four services. USCENTCOM is comprised of components from the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, and Special Operations Command. During exercises or contingency operations, the services provide forces to each of these component commands.

As a teaming partner to SAIC, The Experts, under this contract will be responsible for the existing cable plant infrastructure and maintenance of the J6. The Experts will need to maintain a 24/7 operation in ensuring the integrity of the cable data lines across 10 networks.

“We are pleased to be part of the SAIC team and looking forward to supporting such a critical contract for our national security,” stated David Hoshko, Vice President of Business Development for The Experts. “What is especially motivating about this team that SAIC has assembled is the overall dedication and genuine concern for the war fighters who are in harm’s way. Everyone on this project is extremely dedicated to the men and women in our armed forces, and has vowed to do what it takes in order to solve all issues facing CENTCOM’s technological challenges.”
