THE EXPERTS, INC. PROVIDES CONSTRUCTION PERSONNEL IN SUPPORT OF US NAVAL FACILITIES ENGINEERING COMMAND

TAMPA, FL (August 3, 2010) – The Experts, Inc. announced today that they have been awarded a contract to provide cleared pipefitters, electricians, as well as other construction personnel to Camp Lemonier, Djibouti located in East Africa. Djibouti is an important base for western navies, the French Foreign Legion, and the US Marines. It sits in a very strategic location, at the entrance to the Red Sea and astride the passage from the Indian Ocean to the Suez Canal. Growing pirate troubles to the southeast, around the area that used to be Somalia, have magnified Djibouti's importance.

The prime contract is a joint venture recently awarded by the U.S. Department of Defense as a cost reimbursement task order under a billion-dollar multiple-award construction contract (N62470-06-D-6009, #0012) issued in August 2006 by the US Naval Facilities Engineering Command, Atlantic in Norfolk, VA. The joint venture will design and build a 2,150 square meter aircraft maintenance hangar and a 340 square meter telecommunications facility by November 2010. All 3 awardees under this multiple-award contract bid for this task order.
