THE EXPERTS EXPAND MANAGED SERVICES IN THE NORDIC REGION

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL (November 1, 2010) – The Experts have expanded its' current managed services capabilities in the area of site services, and 24x7 onsite and dispatch technical support in to the Nordic countries for an existing customer. This includes Norway, Finland, Denmark, and Sweden.

The contract requires The Experts to manage, sustain, and evaluate all areas of the customers technical level support needs around-the-clock and to maintain the management staff needed to oversee the ticketing response and proper technician to desktop ratio and deployment. The statement of work requires the installation, redeployment, removals, moves, adds, changes and PC refresh to End User client software and hardware, adhering to all Customer's standard operating procedures and work instructions.

"This contract is pivotal to The Experts in furthering its' ability to better support this customer globally, and the Scandinavian region is a great launching point for this type of managed service solution," commented David Hoshko, Chief Global Officer for The Experts, Inc. "The Experts continues to expand heavily throughout the EMEA market place and by tackling this level of service in a mature and expensive market such as the Nordics we are better equipped to service northern Europe and the rest of Europe as well. We strive to constantly enhance this service offering, not only with the current customer, but with other private and public sector prospects in the region," Hoshko continued. "Our sites are set heavily on areas like Eastern Europe, the Russian Federation, Africa, and other emerging areas of the ME and Southwest Asia. We are learning more every day, but have well positioned ourselves within EMEA so that we have access to extremely strong resources in these regions," Hoshko said further.
